

Supersur

LARZEP, provided the solution to lift a bridge section in the new motorway Supersur in Bilbao, northern Spain.

With synchronous lifting system, using up to 4 STX cylinders, the movements are made through the PLC with the readings of the sensors in real time. Improving in safety, speed and efficiency.

